

104TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 74

Commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the liberation of the Auschwitz death camp in Poland.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 26 (legislative day, JANUARY 10), 1995

Mr. BRADLEY (for himself, Mr. D'AMATO, Mr. DOLE, Mr. DASCHLE, Mr. PELL, Mr. HELMS, Mr. SPECTER, Mr. LAUTENBERG, Mr. FEINGOLD, Mr. HARKIN, Mr. BAUCUS, and Ms. MIKULSKI) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the liberation of the Auschwitz death camp in Poland.

Whereas, on January 27, 1945, the Auschwitz extermination camp in Poland was liberated by Allied Forces after almost five years of murder, rape, and torture;

Whereas more than one million innocent civilians were murdered at Auschwitz alone;

Whereas Auschwitz symbolizes the brutality of the Holocaust;

Whereas Americans must “never forget” this terrible crime against humanity and must educate the generations to come so as to promote the understanding of the dangers of intolerance in order to prevent similar injustices from happening ever again; and

Whereas commemoration of the liberation of Auschwitz will instill in all Americans a greater awareness of the Holocaust: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate hereby—

2 (1) commemorates January 27, 1995, as the
3 fiftieth anniversary of the liberation of the Auschwitz death camp by Allied Forces in the Second
4 World War; and

6 (2) calls upon all Americans to remember the 7 more than one million innocent victims who were
8 murdered at Auschwitz as part of the Holocaust.
